BOBBY WALTHOUR AND NAT BUTLER.

The Two Will Be Team Mates in the Coming Big Six-Day Cycle Race.

The South is to be well represented in the coming six-day race at the Garden for Bobby Walthour has finally decided to compete and is rapidly getting himself in shape for the event. Walthour injured himself a short time ago in a bad spill and it was thought he would not be able to ride again this season. A wire came from him this morning to Pat Powers, however, saying that he would surely ride and that his partner would be Nat Butler.

This team will be one that will make any of them get up and ride as they never did before. There is not a more popular pace-follower in the business than Bobby, and "Old Man" Butler can come near holding his own with any of the sprinters.

PROFESSIONAL DRIVERS ON THE SPEEDWAY.

Brushes Saturday Will Be Close and Exciting with Cracks Handling the Helms.

Professional drivers will have an inning on the Speedway to-morrow afternoon, a race having been arranged for them in conjunction with the regular championship. Jack Curry will drive The King or Crescent, George Spear will start Alice Barnes, Charles Thompson will have Col. Wilkes and Isaac Fleming will try to win with Primrose. The committee has arranged ten brushes in all, including the championship contests for pacers, trotting teams and racing teams. The trotting championship was settled last Saturday when Kingdon won the fourth consecutive brush in the series.

LITTLE JOE NELSON BEAT HORSES ON WHEEL.

Cyclist Finished Ahead of Eight in a Ten-Mile Relay Race.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 21.—"Little Joe" Nelson, the cyclist, accomplished a wonderful feat yesterday by beating ten horses in a relay race of ten miles. Nelson was paced by a motor, while each horse in the relay was ridden by another.

Head Coach Farley Tells the Students at Mass-Meeting that He Cannot See How the Crimson Can Lose.

(Special to The Evening World.)
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 21.—Harvard's football eleven which will clash with Yale at New Haven to-morrow is a far less inferior machine than the Crimson supporters whose betting in Wall street are willing to concede.

Head Coach Farley, speaking to Harvard men at a mass-meeting in the Union last night, said without equivocation that he did not possibly see how Harvard could lose.

"Everything has gone just as we intended it should," he said. "The men are in perfect condition and are all on edge. I could not be better satisfied."

A glance at the personnel of the team, however, may clear up many disputed points and show in some way upon what foundation the remarks uttered in the Union last night were based. In the first place, take the back field. The four men who will represent Harvard behind the line are Graydon, Capt. Kernan, C. Marshall and Putnam. The first three of these played on the Crimson eleven last year, holding down the positions respectively of fullback,
